Dear Kurniawan Yudhi Nugroho,

Hello, my name is Arif Husein Lubis. I have been assigned as your manuscript editor for your submission to Indonesian Journal of Applied Linguistics.

I have completed combining the comments from the reviewers for your consideration. Please, kindly find the attached file. Your study seems very interesting, and the comments help make the presentation of the study clearer.

You are expected to revise the paper within 2-3 days. Please use the 'track changes' tool or color highlights for every change you make. Once you have addressed the comments, please return the manuscript to me (note: do not make a new file nor rename it) and I will check it again for grammar, clarity, and format. Once that is completed, I will return the manuscript to you for a final check before sending it on to the editor for approval.

Let me know if you have any questions.

Best Regards

Arif

#Reviewer one:

Overall comments

Your research is interesting, but I don't think action research cannot be relied to examine teacher professionalism. Please use a qualitative method so that you can investigate your topic more comprehensively.

Suggestions for revision

You did not define what you meant by "professionalism" in your study. Can professionalism be researched? What are the criteria? What is teacher professionalism? It's not defined in your study. Please be specific in your investigation.

This abstract is not clear in terms of its method, data, participants, method of analysis, and theoretical framework.

Present your findings in tabular form so they are easier to understand. Narration can only be used to describe your tables or graphs.

Discuss each finding with previous studies. Incorporate studies which support and refute your findings. Explain why.

#Reviewer two:

Overall suggestions

The manuscript is quite comprehensive, but needs to be proofread for better reading experience.

Suggestions for revision

The manuscript needs to be proofread.
